

Arch-Nemesis

Characters often have an arch-nemesis that stands for the opposite of the hero's views. (Batman-Joker, Superman-Lex Luthor etc). These characters are usually evil and have suffered a traumatic incident which leads them to become evil.

You should include:

- How they received their powers
- Why they decided to become a super villain
- A brief history of the character
- Superpowers
- Weapons Arsenal/vehicles at their disposal

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

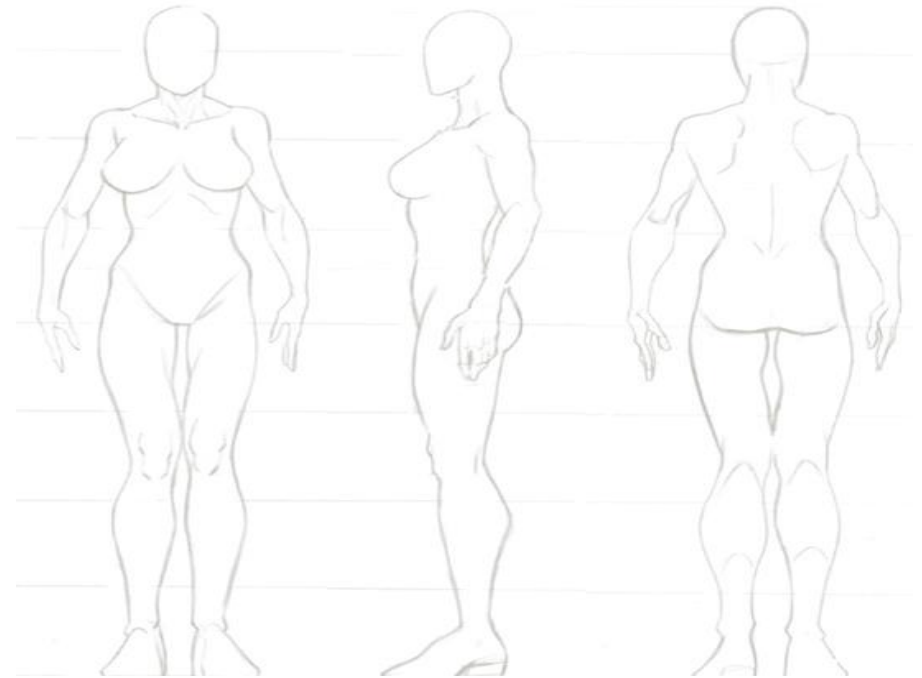

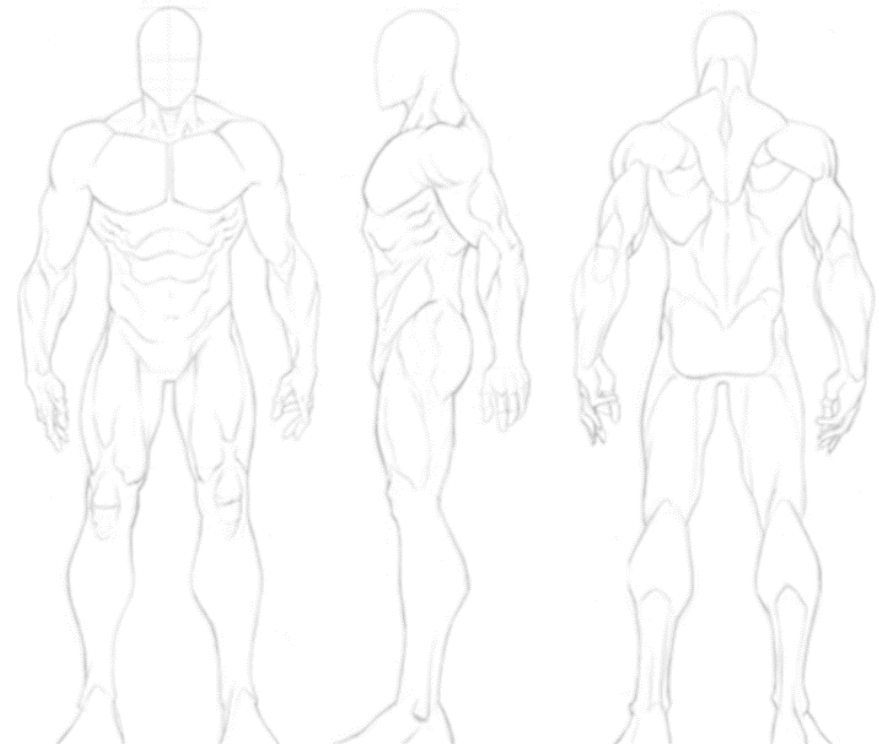

---

---

---

---

---

Lesson Objectives / (Nodau Dysgu)

- Pupils should be able to write a brief history for the arch-nemesis
- Pupils should be able to write a history for the arch-nemesis containing some details.
- Pupils should be able to write a comprehensive and detailed history for the arch-nemesis

