

Lesson Objectives

To be able to plan and carry out identified research tasks using the most suitable methods. Be able to select and show the most important parts of that research. To understand how the physical features of design themes can be used to influence ideas and design innovative products

Peer Assessment: Comment

Literacy Skills